What We Love About University Park is

- Still having grass and still beating teams on it. - Amanda Mathews ('13)
- The various surfaces available to us in preparation for games. - Julianne Giles ('14)
- Everything. The sound system really helps to pump us all up on game day. - Ali Curwin ('15)
- Just playing on the new facility is amazing, having night games under the lights - Kaci Starkloff ('15)
- The facility is beautiful and I cannot wait to play on the new fields with real stands. - Steph Finley ('15)
- The phenomenal facilities that the university has provided us. The Bermuda grass is awesome. - Kelsey MacDonald ('13)
- The hope that more students will come watch our games to enjoy the sport of lacrosse and the amazing facility that has been built. - Mary Jane Toohey ('14)

A Message from the Coach

Welcome to James Madison University lacrosse. As the head lacrosse coach it is with great pride that I share our nationally-ranked program and university with you. It is an honor and privilege to be the head coach of my alma mater. The opportunity to come back to JMU has been a dream come true.

Entering my seventh year back at JMU, the school has grown, the town has grown with it, but the feeling you get being on this campus and the sense of community still remains the same. JMU has always valued every individual on its campus and creates an environment like no other university to learn and grow as a person. Student-athletes have an excellent support system surrounding them with our coaches, student-athletes services staff, strength and conditioning, sports medicine, sports psychology, sports media and administrative staff. They work tirelessly to coordinate their efforts to provide the best possible experience for the JMU student-athlete. “All Together One” is the JMU motto, and it is truly what our student-athletes experience.

JMU encourages a well balanced person and will challenge every aspect of the student-athlete -- academically, athletically and socially. JMU goes beyond the student and teaches about social responsibility within the community and prepares you for any obstacle you may face in the future. The university has established itself with national recognitions in many academic categories and is always evolving to chase its goal of being the best undergraduate university in the nation.

As the coach, I am looking to recruit hard-working individuals who are team players and are committed to being the very best they can be both on the field and in the classroom. Our goal is to win the CAA conference annually and compete for the national championship. We are excited about the future of JMU lacrosse and hope you will join us.

The Essence of JMU Lacrosse

- Early one morning we drove and then walked up a mountain where our coaches had a set up for tie-dying new shirts. So we watched the sun come up while we made our shirts; it was a lot of fun. - Casey Ancarrow ('13)

- The visit and the time we spent with Elle, our most special friend in Virginia. - Lexi Cross ('15)

- Our spirit and pregame routines are awesome, whether it is singing the same songs heading up to the game field, rocking the bus before we get off, or singing and dancing in the locker room before games. - Amanda Mathews ('13)

- The night before our conference championship game, our team had a discussion about why we play lacrosse and more importantly why we play for JMU. The conversation went on for two hours and each person had a different perspective, but everyone said they played for their teammates and everyone shared an overwhelming pride to wear their JMU jersey. - Leah Perrotta ('14)

Building relationships that will last a lifetime
My Favorite Memory from Last Season

- Running onto the lacrosse field for the first time ever, representing JMU. I remember thinking to myself, all the hard work and dedication is finally paying off. - Steph Finley ('15)
- Our win against Loyola after we had been down most of the game. - Casey Ancarrow ('13)
- Watching freshman skits before home games - Julianne Giles ('14)
- Our five day trip to California, where we got to see Alcatraz and meet Condoleezza Rice. It was a once in a lifetime experience with my team. - Leah Perrotta ('14)

The Best Non-Lacrosse Part of JMU

- All of the people at school are so nice. If you lose something it almost always gets returned and there are so many options for each student to do like tons of clubs and classes that are interesting. - Hannah Verschoore ('15)
- The people and the mountains. The view from campus is outstanding, and the people on campus are even better. The school is filled with selfless, happy people that you want to be around. - Ali Curwin ('15)
- The pride in each and every student who walks the campus. - Julianne Giles ('14)
- The people. Everyone is so nice and the professors are passionate about what they teach and about helping you to succeed. - Mary Jane Toohey ('14)

ATTACKERS CHOICE FOR PRECISION SHOOTING

FEATURING THE RUNWAY POCKET

Patented, overlapping center strings allow the two runners to flex out and hug the ball for better control.
Siblings of Elle Howdershell of the Friends of Jaclyn program joined the 2012 team for the introduction of starting lineups and the playing of the national anthem.

“We graduate student athletes who are ready to make an impact in the community.” -- Coach Shelley Klaes-Bawcombe

Teams with a collective grade-point average of 3.0 or above are honored by the Intercollegiate Women’s Lacrosse Coaches Association as an IWLCA Academic Squad. JMU has earned this award five times in the last 10 years, including 2007, 2008 and 2009.

Juniors and seniors with a grade-point average of 3.2 or above are named to the IWLCA Academic Squad Honor Roll. JMU players have earned that recognition 26 times since 2000. Recipients from the 2012 team include Alisa Konishi, Caitlin McHugh and Alex Napoli.

The lacrosse team has won the JMU Athletics team community service award twice in the last three years.

The Dukes received the Exemplary Community Service Award in 2010 and 2012.

The 2012 team’s community service activities included writing letters to soldiers abroad, donating 131 pounds of food to the Blue Ridge Food Bank and “adopting” a family of three for Christmas, providing the family with gifts and toiletries.

The team also became involved with the “Friends of Jaclyn” program and adopted then-nine-year-old Elle Howdershell, who is fighting a brain tumor. The entire team has kept in contact with Elle via blog posts since May 2011 and also visited her in her hometown of Gainesville, Va.

JMU’s beautiful campus includes 112 major buildings on 721 acres. The original campus is built around the Quadrangle, where buildings are constructed of native blue limestone and have ivy coverings.

The University’s 19,800 students may choose from 109 degree programs in seven colleges -- College of Arts and Letters, College of Business, College of Education, College of Integrated Science and Technology, College of Science and Mathematics, College of Visual and Performing Arts, Graduate School.

JMU’s academic program combines the liberal arts tradition with preparation for technology in a rapidly changing world. All students receive a strong foundation of knowledge through a rigorous general education program.

- Female/Male Ratio: 60/40

THIS IS JMU
This is JMU

• U.S. News & World Report in its 2011 America’s Best Colleges guidebook ranked JMU first in the South among public, master’s-level universities for the 17th straight year.

• JMU is Virginia’s most-popular college or university, drawing applications from the greatest percentage of the state’s graduating high school seniors.

• Kiplinger’s Personal Finance in 2012 ranked JMU 28th nationally on its list of 100 best values in public colleges -- schools that offer a first-class education at a reasonable price.

• Yahoo! Internet Life included JMU on its 2001 listing of “The Nation’s 100 Most Wired Universities,” listing JMU 53rd among larger institutions.

• JMU was included in the 2002 edition of The Unofficial, Unbiased, Insider’s Guide to the 320 Most Interesting Colleges with one author saying “JMU is almost too perfect to be believed.”

• JMU has been described as “one of the best managed, most dynamic public universities in the nation” in The Guide to 101 of the Best Values in America’s Colleges and Universities.

• Bloomberg BusinessWeek magazine in 2012 ranked JMU’s College of Business 12th nationally among business schools at public universities and 32nd among all universities.

• JMU is among schools “that prove activism and community service are alive and well on campus,” says Mother Jones Magazine.

• JMU’s exemplary programs for first-year students are “cornerstones of the University’s strong commitment to student learning and success,” says The Temple Guide: Colleges That Encourage Character Development.

• JMU is recognized as one of the nation’s top 75 “Best Value” public universities in the 2012 Princeton Review “Best Value Colleges.” The list recognizes schools that provide high-quality academics at a reasonable price.”
Harrisonburg, Va. A Great College Town

Harrisonburg is convenient to the metropolitan areas of Washington, D.C., and Richmond while providing JMU students the comforts of the picturesque setting of Virginia’s Shenandoah Valley.

The city offers something for everyone. From downtown shopping and restaurants, to nearby national parks and forests, it provides JMU students the opportunity to sample many aspects of life.

Harrisonburg offers a learning environment that is very unique in today’s high-tech, educational world.
